MY WEBSITE is not a not a commercial enterprise. It is dedicated to healing, not monetary profit. It is the work of one man without the financial support of sponsors or advertising. Through this work I have made my knowledge and experience available to all, regardless of their ability to pay for the help they need.

If you make use of this prayer booklet, please consider the effort I put into making it and express your gratitude with a donation. What is the point of praying if your prayer is stained with ingratitude?

*"I don't have any money," you say. Then look honestly at yourself. Try fasting for one day and see if the soda you don't drink, the coffee you don't drink, the snacks you don't eat, and the meat you don't eat will fill your hands with the money to pay something for what you have received here.*

BLESS the Lord, O my soul! and let all that is within me bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul! and never forget all that He hath done for thee.

—Psalm 103:1-2

During the Pascal season—that is, from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday—pray the Regina Coeli, instead of the Angelus, on all days except Sundays, at any or all of the traditional Angelus times: 6:00 AM, noon, 6:00 PM, and midnight. Because of its joyful, celebratory character, the Regina Coeli is prayed standing, unlike the Angelus, which is traditionally prayed kneeling.
